The document contains information about the locations of current and proposed field projects for the Indian Turtle Conservation Program. The locations include:

- Current Field Project locations: Orissa and West Bengal, Assam region, North East India, Western Ghats (Karnataka & Kerala), South India, Chambal (Yamuna & upper Ganges) region, North Central India.
- Proposed Field Project locations: Terai (Foothills of Himalaya) region, North India.

The map highlights these regions with different colors and symbols.